

Today's Lords Supper talk will not be so much of a talk, but a scripture reading. Letting the scriptures talk.

Through the many years I have had a piece of paper in the back of my bible, where I have written Scripture, thoughts and ideas that could be used in communion talks. Looking at it I found three passages Of scripture that I will be using this morning.

1 John 3:1 reads "How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children Of God! And that is what we are!

Psalms 32:1,2& 10,11 Blessed is he whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord does not count against him and in whose spirit is no deceit.

Many are the woes of the wicked, but the Lords unfailing love surrounds the man who trusts in Him.

Rejoice in the Lord and be glad, you righteous; sing all of you who are upright in heart.

Colossians 1:12-14 Giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the kingdom of light. For He has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought Us into the kingdom of the Son He loved, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sin.

Yes we are so blessed and during this time of remembrance, while we express our gratitude, Thanksgiving and love. We remember the price that was paid by our Savior and being able to be called Children of God.

"Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life and may go Through the gates into the city"

O love the words in the song, I'm Redeemed

I'm Redeemed by love Divine Glory Glory Christ is mine. All to Him I now resign. I have been redeemed.
