

pLord's Supper Talk

Good Morning,

I am so grateful that we have a God who heals, sustains us, provides for us, cares for us comforts us, and forgives us, just to name a few. As we partake of these emblems this morning let us reflect on a few verses from scripture.

Psalm 130 says:

1 Out of the depths I cry to you, LORD;

2 Lord, hear my voice. Let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.

3 If you, LORD, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand?

4 But with you there is forgiveness, so that we can, with reverence, serve you.

5 I wait for the LORD, my whole being waits, and in his Word I put my hope.

6 I wait for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning, more than watchmen wait for the morning.

7 Israel, put your hope in the LORD, for with the LORD is unfailing love and with him is full redemption.

8 He himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Ephesians 1:7 NIV

7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace.

We are all sinners in need of a savior, Amen.

This morning we are blessed to meet together and have the opportunity for fellowship and intimacy with our Father. To reflect on what God has done for us by sending his one and only son to die for all the sins of the world.

I can find some comfort and rest in that blessed assurance that one day we will all be with our Father in Heaven.

Prayer:

Thank you so much Lord for the ultimate sacrifice that you made for all of us. The pain and suffering that you endured on the cross and your blood that flowed and covered all the sins of the world.

In your name I pray,

Amen.
